CONNAUGHT HOTEL IS NOW "SEXSMITH HOTEL"

The Connaught Hotel changed hands last week, it being purchased from Mrs. M. Hudson by Mr. James Webster, who has renamed it the "Sexsmith Hotel".

The building is being repaired, both inside and out, and in conversation with Mr. Webster he stated that it is his intention to fully modernize this hotel and make it a place where farmers, travellers and tourists will find comfortable and satisfactory accommodation, service that makes them feel at home, and meals that combine the highest grades of foodstuffs available, regardless of cost, with expert cooking and service.

There will also be an up-to-date livery service in connection with this hotel.

EMPIRE DAY OBSERVED QUIETLY

Empire Day was observed very quietly, most of the citizens taking advantage of the fine weather to get out on the open road. Quite a few took in the sports at Beaver Lodge and "Peepo Creek".

ILLUSTRATED NEWS OF THE WEEK

A SPECIAL TRIBUNE FEATURE

THE BEST OF THE WEEK'S INTERESTING NEWS PICTURE

NEW BRITISH AMBASSADOR TO PARIS

Sir Eric Phipps, new British Ambassador to Paris, photographed above as he commenced his duties at the British Embassy in the French capital.

LONDON HEARS FROM ATLANTIC FLIER

Cheering throngs gathered at Croydon airport to greet Dick Merrill and his co-pilot, Jack Lambie, when the two arrived after a flight over the Atlantic to pick up Coronation pictures and fly them back to the United States. The intrepid fliers made the round-trip safely. This radiophoto was taken as Merrill spoke a word of greeting over the microphone.

RAIL EMPIRE BUYERS AT HEARING

TO TAKE UP NEW POST

On his way to England, prior to taking over his new post as Governor of Ceylon, Sir Alexander Caldecott, K.C.M.G., O.B.E., is shown above with Lady Caldecott, on their way across Canada after having disembarked from the Empress of Japan at Vancouver. Up to the present Sir Alexander Caldecott has been in the Orient as Governor of Hong Kong.

CORONATION HONORS BESTOWED UPON NUMEROUS LEADERS

Among those who were honored by His Majesty the King in his Coronation Honors List are: Top left to right: Sir Robert Horne, who receives a Viscountcy; Earl of Bessborough, former Governor-General of Canada, who receives an Earldom in the United Kingdom; and Sir Ernie Chatfield, First Sea Lord, who becomes a Baron. Below, left to right: Right Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Canadian Minister of Justice, becomes a Privy Councillor; Lord Tweedsmuir, Governor-General of Canada, becomes a Privy Councillor; and General Sir Hubert Gough was awarded the Grand Cross of the Order of the Bath.

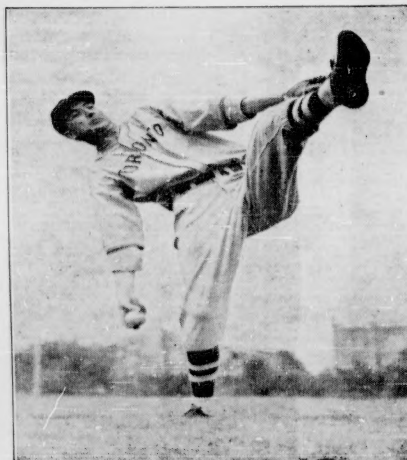

GERMAN EXHIBIT AT PARIS EXHIBITION

The front of the German section at the Paris Exhibition shows the German eagle towering over the building. An excellent impression of the size of this tower can be gained by comparing it with the figures of the two workmen in the foreground.

CHILD GENIUS

Two-year-old Mary Christine Dunn of Bonne Terre, Mo., is hailed as a genius. According to her parents, the child can recite the Lord's Prayer, has a vocabulary of more than 3,000 words and has a good memory. A psychologist at Washington University disclosed tests which showed the child had an intelligence quotient of 185, reputedly 45 more than the I.Q. normally attributed to genius.

ANOTHER OF TORONTO'S BATTLING YOUNGSTERS

If Toronto Maple Leafs don't win the pennant this year it will not be for lack of enthusiasm and pep. The Toronto lineup this year is comprised of the youngest and brightest bunch of players seen in the International League for a long time. Here is Jim Mulligan, one of the pitchers, in action.

LEAF'S FIRST BASEMAN

Jim Walsh, clever first baseman of the Toronto Maple Leafs, photographed as he swings at the ball. Walsh is one of the youngsters who have put a good deal of pep into the Toronto team this year.

FIRST PEER ARRIVES FOR CORONATION

The first peer to arrive for the Coronation was Lord Armstrong, who, accompanied by Lady Armstrong, is shown about to enter Westminster Abbey to take their places among the nobles of the realm. This is a soundphoto.

CARRYING THE CORONATION REGALIA INTO THE ABBEY

Prominent church dignitaries carrying the crown jewels and regalia into Westminster Abbey to be placed upon the altar of the Dean of Westminster, prior to the administration of the oath to King George VI. This is a radio soundphoto.

CASUALTIES AT THE CORONATION

No great was the crowd that witnessed the Coronation in London that numerous casualties were recorded. This picture shows the busy ambulance men administering first aid to a woman spectator who fainted in the throng. This is a radio soundphoto.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
At all Christian Science churches last Sunday, the subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced." The following is one of the Scriptural quotations contained in the Lesson-Sermon: "Many of them, who used curious arts brought their bodies together, and burned them before all men; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver. So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed" (Acts 19:19, 20). One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, is as follows (page 296): "Will-power is the sick, for it is the prayer of the unrighteous; while the exercise of the sentiments—love, faith, hope—is the prayer of the righteous. This prayer, governed by Science instead of the senses, heals the sick."
